GEN. STOESSEL IS CONVICTED

Defender of Port Arthur Condemned to Death.

UNMOVED BY THE SENTENCE.

Former Hero of the Russian Army Exhibits No Emotion on Hearing Verdict—Recommended That the Death Sentence Be Commuted.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21.—Lieutenant General Stoessel has been condemned to death by a military court for the surrender of Port Arthur to the Japanese.

General Fock, who commanded the Fourth East Siberian division of Port Arthur, was ordered reprimanded for a disciplinary offense, which was not connected with the surrender, and General Smirnov, acting commander
of the fortress, and Major General
Reiss, chief of staff to General Stoessel, were acquitted of the charges against them for lack of proof. The court recommended that the death sentence upon Lieutenant General
Stoessel be commuted to ten years' imprisonment in a fortress and that he
be excluded from the service.

General Vador, president of the court, read the sentences amid a tense silence. By a great effort of self control, General Stoessel maintained
a rigid soldier-like impassivity. General Smirnov also was seemingly unmoved, but there were tears in the eyes of General Reiss.

The sentence of death was pronounced upon General Stoessel, "for surrendering the fortress before all the means of defense had been exhausted; for failing to enforce his authority, and for military misdemeanors."

Commutation of the sentence was asked on the ground that "Port Arthur, beset by overwhelming forces,
defended itself under General Sto-essel's leadership with unexampled stubbornness and filled the world with astonishment at the heroic courage of its garrison; that several assaults had been repulsed with tremendous losses
on the part of the enemy; that General Stoessel throughout the siege had maintained the heroic courage of the defenders, and finally, that he had taken energetic part in three campaigns."

Precautions Against a Demonstration.

Before the sentence was read measures were taken to prevent a demonstration in favor of Stoessel by a number of the younger officers and witnesses who were present. These later sent a dispatch to the empress saying
that they would humbly bear testimony that General Stoessel was the soul of the defense of Port Arthur;
that he had always encouraged and
put heart into the garrison and that in case of war they would wish to serve again under such a hero. They asked the empress graciously to bespeak
from the emperor a full pardon.

There was a dramatic moment after the reading of the sentence, when a detachment of soldiers filed into the hall. The spectators, thinking that they were about to seize General
Stoessel, displayed great excitement,
several women fainting. It developed,
however, that this was merely a guard
for the dispersal of the court. General Stoessel, who was accompanied by his son, was the object of a sympathetic demonstration, friends kissing and shaking him by the hand, as he left the court leaning on his son's shoulder.

A public festival is being organized by the municipality of St. Petersburg in honor of the defenders of the fortress.

The passing of the sentence of death
upon General Stoessel is a harsh and tragic ending of the career of this Russian commander, who three years ago was acclaimed around the world as the "hero of Port Arthur." The general, who was decorated by Emperor William of Germany and honored by the Russian army for his gallant defense of the Port Arthur fortress, has now been tried and found wanting in courage and capability by his own people and sentenced to give up his life to the fetish of army prestige.

Even Stoessel's former enemies, the Japanese, have come forward to say that he does not deserve this treatment at the hands of his country, and Stoessel himself argued before the court martial that he had justification for his action. In his last words before the court, General Stoessel, broken in health and fortune, accepted
full responsibility for the surrender of Port Arthur and pleaded for the death sentence. If the court should decide that a crime had been committed.

The right of the ladies to propose
during leap year and to claim a husband or a silk gown forfeit is traditionally ascribed to St. Bridget.

HARRIMAN IS VICTOR

Wins Legal Battle With Stuy-
vesant Fish in Chicago.

DISSOLVES THE INJUNCTION

Court Removes Restrictions Against
the Harriman Interests Voting Certain Shares of Illinois Central Stock.
Battle Not Yet Ended.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Judge Ball of the superior court dissolved the injunction secured last October by Stuyvesant Fish by virtue of which the Harriman interests were restrained
from voting 281,231 shares of the
capital stock of the Illinois Central
railroad at the annual meeting of the company. The theory on which counsel for Mr. Fish based their arguments in support of the injunction—
that it was contrary to the laws and
public policy of the state of Illinois to
allow foreign corporations to own and
vote the stock of domestic corporations—was denied by the court.

Under the ruling of the court the
previously enjoined stock, which is
held by the Union Pacific Railroad
company and by the Railroad Securities Company of New Jersey, can be
voted at the annual meeting of the Illinois Central, which is to be held
in this city on March 2.

There is no appeal from the decision
handed down by Judge Ball, but it is considered probable that Mr. Fish will
take further legal steps to regain possession of the Illinois Central.

Judge E. B. Farrar of New Orleans,
who has acted as leading counsel for
Mr. Fish throughout the controversy,
said after the rendering of the de-

cision that the case will now be tried
on its merits, but declined to say
how quickly new proceedings will be
instituted.

None of the principals in the case
were in court, both Mr. Fish and Mr.
Harriman being in New York.

Courtroom Was Crowded.

All of the attorneys on both sides
and many other lawyers and business
men were present and filled the courtroom to overflowing. President Har-
ahan of the Illinois Central came in
while the decision was being read and
heard the latter portion of it. When the conclusion had been reached he
said:

"My head is too full of that decision
to allow me to say anything, but to
say that I am highly pleased, and
more than highly pleased is putting
it mildly."

Judge Ball, who is of a somewhat
frail physique, turned over to his son
the task of reading the decision, which contained almost 10,000 words. As soon as it was concluded there was a
veritable stampede in the courtroom,
brokers, lawyers and messengers making a rush for the doors in order to announce the result. They ran into
various rooms seeking for telephones
and many tore headlong for the elevators, while others fled wildly down
the stairways. So much excitement
and confusion has not been witnessed
in the county courthouse for many years.

The court declared that Mr. Fish
had not been able to prove any of
his contentions that the domination
of the Illinois Central by Mr. Harri-
man would be to its detriment and
had also failed to show that the interests of stockholders would be injured thereby. The Union Pacific and
the Illinois Central, he said, were not
competing but are connecting lines
and that one could not be a commercial rival of the other in such a sense
as to fall within the scope of legal
decisions against the alliances between competing railroads. The two roads, the court declared, were not
so situated as to make it possible that
they could combine to monopolize traffic in any section of the country.

The court further declared that if
the name of Mr. Harriman was not
a name to conjure with, many of the
allegations made in the case would
not be considered seriously. He was compelled to act, he said, on facts al-

MARSHALL, FIELD & COMPANY
WHOLESALE DRY GOODS

CHICAGO, February 20, 1908

"Michael's" Patrons,
Brainerd, Minn.

Kind Friends:—

You have been informed, thru this medium, of the garments that we feel sure that you will want this year, but little has been said of the fabrics and if you will follow these lines a few moments you will get the benefits of observations made in this splendid retail and wholesale center.

It matters little whether you purchase white goods, wash
fabrics or wool goods, you will find sheer fabrics to be the proper qualities. This is true to a very marked degree. The batistes, taffetas and other similar light weight fabrics are leaders in wool goods and even the fancy cloths, of which there is an abundance in evidence this year, are far from being heavy in weight. The fancies for the spring are mostly self figured or striped and justly merit the admiration they receive.

The wash fabrics are mostly tissues and are extremely pretty. These also insure service as well as being qualities which in most if not in every instance, wash as perfectly as any lady could ask for. It might be added that the styles shown at "Michael's" today are correct and could not be improved upon.

There is ome fabric that is much abused thru the misuse that is given it, and that is silk. When a good silk is secured it is always very serviceable and genteel and so many desirable weaves and patterns are produced in it this year. We have selected good qualities and a most excellent assortment of colorings. The rough qualities are very much in demand and are displayed quite conspicuously in every store. It was noted in our letter about the suits that the color which leads this season is navy blue, with Copenhagen blue as the novelty. Many fabrics are brought out in tan but it will not reach the place where it may be spoken of in the generally applied term of "the rage." Brown is a very close second to the blue and is produced in a new lot of tones.

Shipments of our latest novelties will be made in a few days and by March first will be displayed on our counters.

Very truly yours,

H. F. M.

P. S.—A typographical error occurred in the printing of our letter Tuesday which read; "the 'sleeves' are mostly pleated"
etc., which should have read, "the skirts are mostly pleated."
This correction will make quite a difference in that letter.

ered and proved, and not fear supposed prophecies." The record of the case, he declared, failed to substantiate many of the declarations
made against Mr. Harriman.

Nail Penetrated His Skull.

Independence, Wis., Feb. 21.—Edwin Elstad, a young man, is dead as the result of being struck upon the head
by a board which fell from a barn
loft. A nail in the board penetrated
his skull and entered the brain.

MAY GO TO PANAMA.

John Mitchell May Report on Labor Conditions There.

Washington, Feb. 21.—That John
Mitchell, the retiring president of the United Mine Workers of America,
may be asked by President Roosevelt
to go to Panama and make a report on labor conditions there, is one of the results which may accrue from a conference on Panama affairs at the White House. The president, Secretary Taft and Colonel Goethals considered not only the labor phase of the Isthmian situation, but many others.
Colonel Goethals received final instructions and will sail for the Isthmus next week.

No conclusion was reached as to the appointment of Mr. Mitchell, and it is understood that James Bronson Reynolds, the president's Chicago packing house investigator, also was considered for the same work. The necessity of having accurate information
on labor conditions on the Isthmus
has been emphasized recently by
numerous minor complaints which are
coming to Washington. It is considered desirable also to have expert information on the matter in which the
reforms ordered as a result of the investigation of Miss Betts have been
made effective.

AIR FULL OF RUMORS.

Plots and Counterplots Reported Rife
in Portugal.

Lisbon, Feb. 21.—The air is full of
rumors of plots and counterplots.
Some speak of increased revolutionary agitation among the Republicans;
others of the revival of "Francism";
yet others of a palace and barracks
plot to establish a military dictator-
ship. An Oporto newspaper states
positively that the government has discovered a Francoist plot at the palace and is prosecuting Counts Arnoso
and Taronca and Major Jose Lobo,
who are alleged to be the leaders.

The Republicans, however, declare
that they will support the government
if it continues its liberal policy, and
official organs affirm that the government will use all legal means to maintain order and assure respect for the
constitution.

The unsettled state of the public
mind is reflected in business conditions, which are very bad.

Torpedo Boats Return.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 21.—After two
days of battling with the heavy seas
off the Virginia coast, the five torpedo
boats which passed out Tuesday night
bound for points on the Gulf of Mexico returned to Hampton Roads. The
prevailing adverse winds and high
seas prevented the boats from making
any headway. It is said two or three
have sustained minor damage.

Nubbins—Here is a line of poetry
that says, "Every wife is worth her
weight in gold." If that statement
were really true, a man could double
his wealth in a hurry.

Bluffers—How so?

Nubbins—Why, marry a thin woman
and fatten her up.

Boarding House Blown Up.

Hackensack, N. J., Feb. 21.—A small
frame structure at Fairview occupied
as an Italian boarding house was
blown to pieces by an explosive which
had been placed against the outside of the building. The only man in the house at the time was killed. The
landlady and her three children escaped with slight injuries.

Automobile Factory on Fire.

Dayton, O., Feb. 21.—Fire of un-
known origin broke out in the mammoth plant of the Stoddard Dayton
automobile factory and swept through
the old section of the plant, causing damage of many thousands. The entire plant is in flames and will be a
total loss.

GEN. STOESSEL IS CONVICTED

Defender of Port Arthur Con-

UNMOVED BY THE SENTENCE

Former Hero of the Russian Army Ex-

APPREHENSION GROUNDLESS

No Concerted Movement by Railroads
to Reduce Wages.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Industrial and financial circles have been more or less concerned over what they regard as a prospect that the railroads
of the country have in contemplation
a general reduction in the wages of their employees. Such apprehension is practically groundless. Information which has reached the interstate commerce commission, particularly, and other officials of the government who have a direct or indirect interest in industrial and railway matters, indicate clearly that there is no concerted action on the part of the American railways to make general changes in their wage scale at this time or in the near future. Instances of postponed readjustment of wage scales are cited
in the cases of three or four Southern systems, the Southern railway, the Louisville and Nashville, the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast line being named as practically the only roads in the country which may be affected. It is the intention of the officials of the lines named to consider with their employees the question of a readjustment of some at least of the wage scales now in force
with a view to reducing their operating expenses, which they regard as necessary. It is expected that the employees may meet them half way
and no serious difficulty is anticipated.

One other line, the Chicago and Great Western, had been named as likely to reduce the wages of its employees. It can be said by authority that the receivers of that road have no intention to reduce or readjust the wages now in force.

SUICIDE IS A MYSTERY.

No Reason Known for Colonel Guindon's Act.

New York, Feb. 21.—Without leaving anything to indicate why the act
was committed, Colonel Eugene W.
Guindon, president of Fuller's Express company, fired a bullet into his brain
while seated at his desk and died shortly afterward. His friends believe ill health caused the act.

When he arrived at his office Colonel Guindon began his customary duties and nothing in his demeanor gave an inkling of the tragedy that was to follow. After writing some letters he placed his watch, money and other articles in an envelope and addressed
it to his wife, and then shot himself.
One of the letters was addressed to Harry Thurston, manager of the Astor House, of which the widow of Colonel Guindon is the lessee. It said:

"Take care of the R. J. Dean receivership matter."

This referred to the business of the firm, R. J. Dean & Co., storage warehouse, for which Guindon was receiver. Mr. Thurston, believing that something was wrong, immediately
went to the office of the Fuller Express company. He had just entered the door of the building when the shot
was heard that ended Guindon's life.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE.

Adopted by French Senate in Government's Moroccan Policy.

Paris, Feb. 21.—The reports of numerous recent severe battles in Morocco, which have been printed in the newspapers here with the accompanying rumors that General
D'Amade's army is really in serious
straits through reverses at the hands
of tribesmen, led to a lengthy discussion of the Moroccan question in the senate, which finally adopted a vote
of confidence in the government's present course of action.

Senator Guadin de Villaine contended that the recent murderous attacks
upon the French troops at close quarters indicates that the government should increase the army and end the intolerable situation.

"You are face to face," he said,
"with the dilemma of evacuating Morocco or dispatching an army of 100, 000 troops to that country. While we are debating, Spain is taking all she pleases on the coast, and one day
Great Britain will take Tangier."

General Picquart, the minister of war, responded at some length.

He denounced as false the sensational reports which were coming out of Morocco and claimed that General D'Amade was succeeding in his mission, which always must be carried out in accordance with the delicate restrictions of the Algeiras act. The general situation in Morocco, he said,
is excellent.

HARRIMAN IS VICTOR

Wins Legal Battle With Stuy-
vesant Fish in Chicago.

DISSOLVES THE INJUNCTION

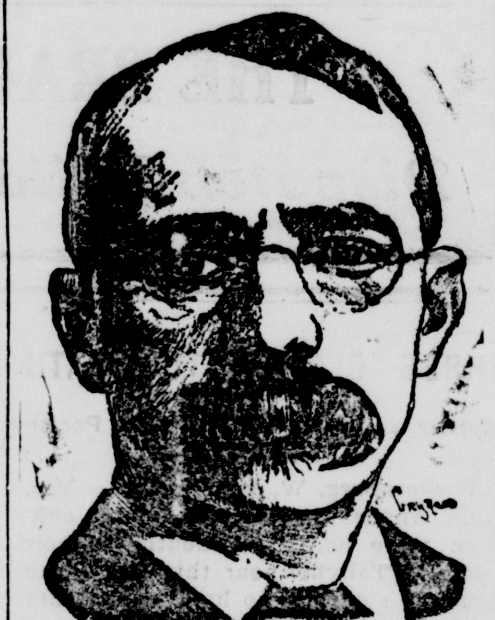

Court Removes Restrictions Against
the Harriman Interests Voting Certain Shares of Illinois Central Stock.
Battle Not Yet Ended.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Judge Ball of the
superior court dissolved the injunction secured last October by Stuy-
vesant Fish by virtue of which the
Harriman interests were restrained
from voting 281,231 shares of the
capital stock of the Illinois Central
railroad at the annual meeting of the
company. The theory on which counsel for Mr. Fish based their arguments in support of the injunction—
that it was contrary to the laws and
public policy of the state of Illinois to
allow foreign corporations to own and
vote the stock of domestic corporations—was denied by the court.

Under the ruling of the court the
previously enjoined stock, which is
held by the Union Pacific Railroad
company and by the Railroad Securi-
ties Company of New Jersey, can be
voted at the annual meeting of the Illinois Central, which is to be held
in this city on March 2.

There is no appeal from the decision
handed down by Judge Ball, but it is considered probable that Mr. Fish will
take further legal steps to regain possession of the Illinois Central.

Judge E. B. Farrar of New Orleans,
who has acted as leading counsel for
Mr. Fish throughout the controversy,
said after the rendering of the de-

cision that the case will now be tried
on its merits, but declined to say
how quickly new proceedings will be
instituted.

None of the principals in the case
were in court, both Mr. Fish and Mr.
Harriman being in New York.

Courtroom Was Crowded.

All of the attorneys on both sides
and many other lawyers and business
men were present and filled the court-
room to overflowing. President Har-
ahan of the Illinois Central came in
while the decision was being read and
heard the latter portion of it. When
the conclusion had been reached he
said:

"My head is too full of that decision
to allow me to say anything, but to
say that I am highly pleased, and
more than highly pleased is putting
it mildly."

Judge Ball, who is of a somewhat
frail physique, turned over to his son
the task of reading the decision, which
contained almost 10,000 words. As soon as it was concluded there was a
veritable stampede in the courtroom,
brokers, lawyers and messengers making a rush for the doors in order to
announce the result. They ran into
various rooms seeking for telephones
and many tore headlong for the eleva-
tors, while others fled wildly down
the stairways. So much excitement
and confusion has not been witnessed
in the county courthouse for many
years.

The court declared that Mr. Fish
had not been able to prove any of
his contentions that the domination
of the Illinois Central by Mr. Harri-
man would be to its detriment and
had also failed to show that the interests of stockholders would be injured thereby. The Union Pacific and
the Illinois Central, he said, were not
competing but are connecting lines
and that one could not be a commercial rival of the other in such a sense
as to fall within the scope of legal
decisions against the alliances between competing railroads. The two
roads, the court declared, were not
so situated as to make it possible that
they could combine to monopolize traffic in any section of the country.

The court further declared that if
the name of Mr. Harriman was not
a name to conjure with, many of the
allegations made in the case would
not be considered seriously. He was compelled to act, he said, on facts al-

Isthmian situation, but many others.
Colonel Goethals received final instructions and will sail for the Isthmus next week.

No conclusion was reached as to the appointment of Mr. Mitchell, and it is understood that James Bronson Reynolds, the president's Chicago pack-
ing house investigator, also was considered for the same work. The necessity of having accurate information
on labor conditions on the Isthmus
has been emphasized recently by
numerous minor complaints which are
coming to Washington. It is considered desirable also to have expert in-
formation on the matter in which the
reforms ordered as a result of the investigation of Miss Betts have been
made effective.

AIR FULL OF RUMORS.

Plots and Counterplots Reported Rife
in Portugal.

Lisbon, Feb. 21.—The air is full of
rumors of plots and counterplots.
Some speak of increased revolution-
ary agitation among the Republicans;
others of the revival of "Francolism";
yet others of a palace and barrack
plot to establish a military dictator-
ship. An Oporto newspaper states
positively that the government has discovered a Francoist plot at the palace and is prosecuting Counts Arnoso
and Tarouca and Major Jose Lobo,
who are alleged to be the leaders.

The Republicans, however, declare
that they will support the government
if it continues its liberal policy, and
official organs affirm that the government will use all legal means to maintain order and assure respect for the
constitution.

The unsettled state of the public
mind is reflected in business conditions, which are very bad.

Torpedo Boats Return.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 21.—After two
days of battling with the heavy seas
off the Virginia coast, the five torpedo
boats which passed out Tuesday night
bound for points on the Gulf of Mexico returned to Hampton Roads. The
prevailing adverse winds and high
seas prevented the boats from making
any headway. It is said two or three
have sustained minor damage.

Nubbins—Here is a line of poetry
that says, "Every wife is worth her
weight in gold." If that statement
were really true, a man could double
his wealth in a hurry.

Bluffers—How so?
Nubbins—Why, marry a thin woman
and fatten her up.

Boarding House Blown Up.

Hackensack, N. J., Feb. 21.—A small
frame structure at Fairview occupied
as an Italian boarding house was
blown to pieces by an explosive which
had been placed against the outside of
the building. The only man in the house at the time was killed. The
landlady and her three children escaped with slight injuries.

Automobile Factory on Fire.

Dayton, O., Feb. 21.—Fire of un-
known origin broke out in the mam-
moth plant of the Stoddard Dayton
automobile factory and swept through
the old section of the plant, causing
damage of many thousands. The entire plant is in flames and will be a
total loss.

FRESH AIR SCHOOL.

Marked Success of First One Established in United States.

WINDOWS KEPT WIDE OPEN.

Nearly All of Twenty Pupils Studying at Providence Showed Signs of Tuberculosis or Had Consumptive Parents—Warm Cotton Bags For Legs.

While the thermometer hovered in the vicinity of zero a few days ago twenty girls and boys, pupils of the first fresh air school in the United States, sat snugly and warmly wrapped in their cotton bags in the old Meeting street school at Providence, R. I. They apparently were as comfortable as the thousands of pupils in the other schools in the city despite the fact that the temperature maintained in the room was at no time above 45 degrees.

The public school authorities are enthusiastic over the success that the fresh air school has achieved in a few weeks' existence. At a meeting of the school board Superintendent Small reported that he was more than pleased with the outlook and expressed the opinion that the fresh air school will be one of the most beneficial public institutions Providence ever has had.

Already, he said, the children, living practically all day in the cool, fresh air, are beginning to show signs of improvement. Little faces that were sallow and pinched a few weeks ago have a healthy flush, and children who were too tired to play are beginning to show some interest in life. All of this, Mr. Small told the school board, is what the fresh air school has accomplished.

Mr. Small expects to see the day when at least three of his small pupils who are now suffering with consumption will have been cured.

The school was founded at the instigation of the League For the Suppression of Tuberculosis, and it is primarily intended not only to fight the spread of the white plague, but also to teach the children the value of fresh air as a health producer and destroyer of the germs of disease.

The school is under the direction of Mrs. Mary Appleton. The pupils were selected from children who were suffering with some disease which disqualified them from attending other public schools. Each was subjected to a physical examination by a physician before he or she was admitted. When their names were placed on the roll book, they became at once patients and pupils.

Ten children answered the roll on the first day, but before the week ended this number had been increased to twenty. Some of them have attended other schools, but others never had been within the walls of an institution of that kind. Many of the children showed signs of consumption; others have parents who have had that disease; others have tuberculosis of the bones. One has heart trouble.

A record of the condition of the children is taken from time to time, and such suggestions as the doctors may think necessary for the improvement of their health are carried out by the teachers.

The schoolroom is on the second floor of the building. The south side of the room, facing on Meeting street, is wide open to allow sunshine and fresh air to enter. Five swinging windows are caught up by means of a rope and pulleys and can be lowered in case of rain or snow. They are so adjusted that, while fresh air is always circulating through the room, there is at no time a draft.

The furniture in the room is of the same kind as is used in the other public school buildings. The room is heated by a big round stove in the center.

In order that as much protection as possible may be given the children they are allowed to wear their coats and hats while in the schoolroom. Their legs are incased in warm cotton bags, which are drawn up as far as the waist and then tied. If the child feels cold notwithstanding this protection, the teacher gives him permission to sit by the stove. In case the feet get cold despite the bag, soapstone warmers are placed under them.

For the rest, the scholars are instructed in the studies that are taught in other public schools. The sessions are from 9 to 11:45 a. m. and from 12:45 to 3 p. m.

Window Cleaning In College Course. Dirty windows are a bane to the flat dweller, for her maid absolutely refuses to wash them, and of course the janitor is away on mild days. In such circumstances it is a lemonlike smile that will crease the features of the New York housekeeper when she hears of a new move in King's college, London. A course in domestic theory has been established there, and much time will be given to the ethics of scrubbing. Surely scrubbing should include windows. The first course will begin in next October. "Students who have been graduated in science should be able to condense this special course into one year," says the head master. "As far as I am aware, nothing of this new course of study has been attempted in Europe."

A sailor the other day in describing the first efforts of a youth to become nautical said that just at the close of a dark night the lad was sent aloft to try if he could see a light.

As he was no great favorite with the lieutenant, he was not hailed for some time—in fact, dawn was beginning to break when "Aloft there!" at length was heard from the lieutenant.

"Aye, aye, sir."
"Do you see a light?"
"Yes, sir."

FRESH AIR SCHOOL.

Nearly All of Twenty Pupils Studying at Providence Showed Signs of Tuberculosis or Had Consumptive Parents—Warm Cotton Bags For Legs.

Galax Leaves.

G. A. Holder of Round Peak was in Mount Airy recently and told something of the large business he has built up in the sale of galax leaves. He will pay the women and children of his neighborhood as much as $3,000 this winter for gathering these leaves along the little ravines in the mountains. The leaves are packed in bunches of twenty-five each and sold to florists in cities. They sell in Mount Airy for 25 cents for 3,000 leaves. Women and children often make from $1 to $1.50 a day gathering them.

Canadian's Odd Misfortune.

Edward Spendlove of St. John, N. B., who came to Mexico recently to inspect tracts of timber land with a view to investment, is being taken home totally blind. He found a peculiar tree in the forest and struck it with an ax. The blow caused the sap to spurt into his eyes, completely destroying his sight.

The Light He Saw.

A sailor the other day in describing the first efforts of a youth to become a nautical said that just at the close of a dark night the lad was sent aloft to try if he could see a light.

As he was no great favorite with the lieutenant, he was not hailed for some time—in fact, dawn was beginning to break when "Aloft there!" at length was heard from the lieutenant.

"Aye, aye, sir."
"Do you see a light?"
"Yes, sir."
"What light?"
"The daylight, sir."

The program for the meeting of N. M. E. A. to be held at St. Cloud on April 2, 3 and 4 has been in preparation for some time. It is expected now that it will be printed and ready for distribution about March 1st. The meetings will open on Thursday evening, April 2nd, with a program in what is named the superintendents and graded section, which is of general interest. The topics for the evening are: "The Basis of Promotion in the Grades," and "Is the Utilitarian Tendency in Education Being Carried too Far?" Supt. Jordan, of Minneapolis, and Supt. Hilleboe, of Benson, are the principal speakers.

On Friday forenoon, Supt. Olsen, Asst. Supt. Schulz and others will address a joint meeting of the school boards of Stearns and Benton counties and rural school teachers. At the same time, Supt. Greenwood, of Kansas City and a number of other noted speakers will address the high school section. The topic is: "What to Expect of the Boys and Girls at the Age of Adolescence and How to Deal With Them in Their Studies and in Their Behavior in and out of School."

The general association will meet on Friday afternoon, April 3rd and Saturday forenoon following. The general theme of the program is: "The Adjustment of Education to the Child." Geo. E. Aiton, Supt. Greenwood, of Kansas City, and Miss Gildemeister of the Winona Normal will be the principal speakers. Several people have been engaged to discuss the topics and the general discussion will be limited only for want of time. The two topics for Saturday forenoon will be especially interesting. Miss McManus, of Douglas county, will discuss "Industrial Work in the Rural Schools" and Prof. James of the university will give a lecture "The Education of the Hand."

Instead of the usual lecture on Friday evening, the musical talent available for the purpose will give a concert in the normal school assembly hall.

The late Gottfried Hempel, who died in Pequot a few days ago could have qualified in President Roosevelt's desirable citizen class easily. He also disproved the Ostler theories. The funeral services were held at Pequot this morning and the remains were taken to Fulda, Minn., for interment.

Ladies Musical Club

The Ladies Musical Club has in prospect several pleasant events before the end of the club year. Mrs. Nelson, of Duluth, formerly Miss Mary Hollenbeck, of this city, will give a reading of Enock Arden with piano accompaniment. The Ladies Chorus is preparing a cantata, "The Lady of Shalot" under Mrs. Dial's able direction, and Harry Phillips will undoubtedly give a song recital. It is hoped that not the ladies of the club but that their friends will give these entertainments their hearty support.

The first event will be next Monday evening when Mrs. Olds, of St. Paul, will give a piano recital, assisted by the club chorus. Admission to non-members of the club will be twenty-five cents.

FARM, HOME AND GARDEN

At this time of the year there is much that can be done to get in readiness for the rush of spring's work. There are many little things which can be done as easily now as later and save the time when it is of more importance. One thing that every farmer should do is to clean and oil his harnesses. If a harness is given a good cleaning and oiling once or twice a year it will add greatly to its durability. If the leather is kept flexible it will not strain the stitches nearly so much and there will be much less ripping. The oil also keeps the sweat from the horses penetrating the leather and rotting it.

There are also lots of small jobs of tinkering on farm machinery that can be done as well on the warm days of winter as after spring opens. It is a very good plan to look all the implements over and see what is needed. A little foresight in that way will often save a trip to the city in a busy season, or avoid the delay of sending to the factory for a defective part just when the machine is needed worst.

Are you keeping a careful eye on your farm animals, so as to know which ones are paying for their keep? Every animal kept should pay its board in growth, in the production of milk or young or in present or prospective service. It is poor policy to keep boarders who do not pay.

It is doubtful if many Crow Wing farmers or poultry raisers are aware of the fact that they are liable to prosecution if they sell stale eggs. The State Dairy and Food Commissioner of Minnesota has issued the following:

WARNING

To Whom It May Concern:

The attention of producers and dealers in eggs is called to the provisions of Chapter 384, General Laws 1907, which provide that "No person shall deal in or sell for use as food any filthy, decomposed, diseased or otherwise unwholesome food or dairy products, either in a natural state or in any manufactured, mixed or prepared condition, etc." Violators of this law are liable to a fine of $50.00 or imprisonment for sixty days.

All producers are warned not to offer eggs for sale which are not fresh and wholesome, and all dealers who buy or deal in stale or rotten eggs will be prosecuted.

The attention of cream producers and cream buyers is also called to the provisions of the law.

This department will enforce this law with special reference to the sale of the above mentioned food articles, and prosecutions will follow against offenders wherever evidence can be obtained.

Signed,
EDWARD K. SLATER,
Commissioner.

CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS

Ambrose Tighe and the Council Municipal Ownership Committee in Conference

TRYING TO GET TOGETHER

Mr. Tighe Expresses Himself as Desirous of Selling the Water Works

Ambrose Tighe, of the Minnesota Water Works Co., has been the city the past three days in conference with the city officials and other prominent citizens over the water works situation. Mr. Tighe states that he is ready and willing to sell the plant to the city and is taking a friendly attitude in regard to the condemnation of the plant by the city. He states that he prefers to proceed under the state law rather than under the ordinance for the reason that the state law is more explicit than the ordinance in the matter. The former provides that three appraisers be appointed by the district judge while the ordinance provides that the water company may appoint one, the city one and the two a third, while in the event of the representatives of the city and of the water company failed to agree on a man the judge of the district court shall appoint the third man.

Mr. Tighe was in consultation with the municipal ownership committee of the city council this forenoon and he and City Attorney Polk spent some time looking up the law in the case. A proposition to condemn the water plant would, it is stated, have to be passed by the city council by two thirds vote, then a commission or board of arbitration would have to be appointed, and after their report the question of the purchase or taking over of the plant at the appraised price would have to be voted upon by the people at a regular or special election.

All conferences between Mr. Tighe and the city officials and citizens have been entirely informal and as yet it is too early in the negotiations to make even a guess at the outcome.

Simple Remedy for Lagrippe

Lagrippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. H. P. Dunn. mwfdw

The Fleur-de-Lis

The origin of the fleur-de-lis is still an unsettled question. There are many theories, but no two of them agree. One makes the emblem originate with Clovis I., another with Louis VII., another with one of the German kings of the twelfth century and still another with the Romans. All that is definitely settled is the fact that since the twelfth century the fleur-de-lis has been employed as the emblem of French royalty. The nature of the emblem is also in dispute. An old tradition makes it the representation of the lily given by the angel to Clovis at his baptism. Another theory is that it was adopted by Louis VII. in allusion to his name, Louis Florus.

Give Him a Chance.

A now famous physician relates that early in his career in the city where he was located there resided an elderly physician who was always ready to give him wholesome advice. One morning the young practitioner was called to visit a man who was very sick. On his way he happened to meet his old friend, the doctor, and, as usual, he had something of importance to say. He drew it out so long, however, that the younger man grew impatient and finally said: "Doctor, you will have to excuse me. I am on my way to visit a gentleman who is said to be dangerously ill."

"Oh," was the unexpected reply, "give the man a chance." And the old fellow resumed his interrupted talk.

Wanted His Share.

At the dedication of a monument in New York recently two guns of a national guard field battery were ordered to fire the national salute of twenty-one guns. After the twenty-first charge had been exploded there was a momentary pause, and one of the gunners ordered another shot rammed home and the trigger pulled. The officer in charge of the firing rushed up and demanded from the offending gunner an explanation. "Well, the other gun fired eleven shots, and I wasn't going to let them have anything on us," was his reply.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"At the Unique"

The headliner at the Unique the last half of the week is "A Four-footed Hero" is a most excellent picture. The saving of child from a burning house being the text of the story. The "Military Tournament of Samar," is a fine horse picture and the amount of training they receive for cavalry work--"A False Start" and "Lady Doctor's Husband" were comic to the extreme and never failed to bring peals of laughter at most frequent intervals. The singing of Miss Kathleen Graham was well up to her past standard and taken in all it was a most excellent program.

"Arizona"

The Staples dramatic club will present this distinctively American drama at the Brainerd opera house on the evening of Thursday, February 27. The scene of the play is laid in and around a Arizona army post and is typical of life in the southwest. There is the usual love story running through it and it is a pure and clean drama. The Staples dramatic club has made good wherever it has appeared and there is no doubt a treat is in store for those who attend.

The Parish Priest

The above well known play will be put on St. Patrick's day by members of the congregation of St. Francis Catholic church. St. Patrick's day is always the time when opera house receipts touch the high mark, the annual entertainment on that date always crowding the building to the doors. This year will be no exception.

Well Known in Every Home

A new stage version of the famous family story, "The Hidden Hand" will be seen at the opera house, Feb. 25. This is the story which set Robert Bonner, then the struggling owner of the New York Ledger on the road to millions and made Capitola, Black Donald, Wool and other characters of the novel, well known in almost every home in the country. Eugene Moore, the actor, is the author of this dramatization. Popular prices.

"Bijou"

At this theatre the house was crowded to the doors with patrons who were anxious to see the presentation of "The Hoosier Fighter," portraying the work of Joe Choynski, in a nicely arranged story in which he is seen in a five round contest with Harry Gilmore, of Chicago. Miss Carmen Mahlum in pictured melodies made a great hit.

A Parting Shot.

A young girl was taken in to a London dinner by a solicitor, who, probably considering her too youthful for it to be worth his while to make himself agreeable, barely spoke a single word to her during the meal. It so happened that she had before dinner asked him to explain the difference between a barrister and a solicitor, which he did by telling her that, as the latter was not permitted to speak in court, the former had always to be employed for the purpose. At the conclusion of dinner, as the ladies were leaving the room she sarcastically addressed him in the following words: "What a pity, Mr. X., you omitted to bring your barrister with you this evening."

"Why not set your cap for that young man? He's single and well off." "Yes, he's single, but he knows he's well off."--Pittsburg Post.

Ambrose Tighe, of the Minnesota Water Works Co., has been the city the past three days in conference with the city officials and other prominent citizens over the water works situation. Mr. Tighe states that he is ready and willing to sell the plant to the city and is taking a friendly attitude in regard to the condemnation of the plant by the city. He states that he prefers to proceed under the state law rather than under the ordinance for the reason that the state law is more explicit than the ordinance in the matter. The former provides that three appraisers be appointed by the district judge while the ordinance provides that the water company may appoint one, the city one and the two a third, while in the event of the representatives of the city and of the water company failed to agree on a man the judge of the district court shall appoint the third man.

Mr. Tighe was in consultation with the municipal ownership committee of the city council this forenoon and he and City Attorney Polk spent some time looking up the law in the case. A proposition to condemn the water plant would, it is stated, have to be passed by the city council by two thirds vote, then a commission or board of arbitration would have to be appointed, and after their report the question of the purchase or taking over of the plant at the appraised price would have to be voted upon by the people at a regular or special election.

All conferences between Mr. Tighe and the city officials and citizens have been entirely informal and as yet it is too early in the negotiations to make even a guess at the outcome.

The Fleur-de-Lis.

The origin of the fleur-de-lis is still an unsettled question. There are many theories, but no two of them agree. One makes the emblem originate with Clovis I., another with Louis VII., another with one of the German kings of the twelfth century and still another with the Romans. All that is definitely settled is the fact that since the twelfth century the fleur-de-lis has been employed as the emblem of French royalty. The nature of the emblem is also in dispute. An old tradition makes it the representation of the lily given by the angel to Clovis at his baptism. Another theory is that it was adopted by Louis VII. in allusion to his name, Louis Florus.

Give Him a Chance.

A now famous physician relates that early in his career in the city where he was located there resided an elderly physician who was always ready to give him wholesome advice. One morning the young practitioner was called to visit a man who was very sick. On his way he happened to meet his old friend, the doctor, and, as usual, he had something of importance to say. He drew it out so long, however, that the younger man grew impatient and finally said: "Doctor, you will have to excuse me. I am on my way to visit a gentleman who is said to be dangerously ill."

"Oh," was the unexpected reply, "give the man a chance." And the old fellow resumed his interrupted talk.

Wanted His Share.

At the dedication of a monument in New York recently two guns of a national guard field battery were ordered to fire the national salute of twenty-one guns. After the twenty-first charge had been exploded there was a momentary pause, and one of the gunners ordered another shot rammed home and the trigger pulled. The officer in charge of the firing rushed up and demanded from the offending gunner an explanation. "Well, the other gun fired eleven shots, and I wasn't going to let them have anything on us," was his reply.

"At the Unique"

The headliner at the Unique the last half of the week is "A Four-footed Hero" is a most excellent picture. The saving of child from a burning house being the text of the story. The "Military Tournament of Samar," is a fine horse picture and the amount of training they receive for cavalry work "A False Start" and "Lady Doctor's Husband" were comic to the extreme and never failed to bring peals of laughter at most frequent intervals. The singing of Miss Kathleen Graham was well up to her past standard and taken in all it was a most excellent program.

"Arizona"

The Staples dramatic club will present this distinctively American drama at the Brainerd opera house on the evening of Thursday, February 27. The scene of the play is laid in and around a Arizona army post and is typical of life in the southwest. There is the usual love story running through it and it is a pure and clean drama. The Staples dramatic club has made good wherever it has appeared and there is no doubt a treat is in store for those who attend.

The Parish Priest

The above well known play will be put on St. Patrick's day by members of the congregation of St. Francis Catholic church. St. Patrick's day is always the time when opera house receipts touch the high mark, the annual entertainment on that date always crowding the building to the doors. This year will be no exception.

Well Known in Every Home

A new stage version of the famous family story, "The Hidden Hand" will be seen at the opera house, Feb. 25. This is the story which set Robert Bonner, then the struggling owner of the New York Ledger on the road to millions and made Capitola, Black Donald, Wool and other characters of the novel, well known in almost every home in the country. Eugene Moore, the actor, is the author of this dramatization. Popular prices.

"Bijou"

At this theatre the house was crowded to the doors with patrons who were anxious to see the presentation of "The Hoosier Fighter," portraying the work of Joe Choynski, in a nicely arranged story in which he is seen in a five round contest with Harry Gilmore, of Chicago. Miss Carman Mahlum in pictured melodies made a great hit.

A Parting Shot.

A young girl was taken in to a London dinner by a solicitor, who, probably considering her too youthful for it to be worth his while to make himself agreeable, barely spoke a single word to her during the meal. It so happened that she had before dinner asked him to explain the difference between a barrister and a solicitor, which he did by telling her that, as the latter was not permitted to speak in court, the former had always to be employed for the purpose. At the conclusion of dinner, as the ladies were leaving the room she sarcastically addressed him in the following words: "What a pity, Mr. X., you omitted to bring your barrister with you this evening."

"Why not set your cap for that young man? He's single and well off."

"Yes, he's single, but he knows he's well off."—Pittsburg Post.

AS SUCCESSFUL EAST AS IN THE WEST

Cooper's Theories Are Being Rapidly Accepted by Eastern People.

L. T. Cooper, whose theory that the human stomach is the cause of most ill health and who created a furor in Chicago, St. Louis and other western cities, is meeting with the same remarkable success with his medicine throughout the east. Cooper has convinced an immense number of people that his theory is sound and his medicine will do what he claims.

Perhaps the most interesting features of the discussion this young man is causing, are the statements made by responsible people who have taken his medicines and have become enthusiastic converts to his beliefs.

Among statements of this character, the following, by Mr. August Wittmer, 1049 Rockwell Court, Chicago, is characteristic of the widespread faith in Cooper, which has grown up in a comparatively short time. Mr. Wittmer says: "I wouldn't take $1,000 and be in the condition I was three weeks ago. I was practically an invalid for fourteen years and think I had about all of the diseases known. My stomach was weak, and at times I would have an enormous appetite, and then again none at all. Pie and cake made me sick, and I almost always had a sickening feeling in my stomach. I was nervous, and for weeks at a time could not sleep, and then again could sleep eighteen hours at a stretch. Sleep, however, seemed to do me no good, and I would awake tired and more exhausted than when I went to bed.

"I was constipated, had pains in my back, and flutterings and pains in my heart. I was unable to work with any regularity, and took no interest in anything. I tried all kinds of medicines and doctors, but none benefited me. I had no energy and no ambition, and had about concluded to give up when the Cooper medicine was recommended. Thanks to it, my health seems completely restored and I feel like a new man."

Cooper medicines have created the greatest sensation of anything of the kind ever before introduced.

We sell them, and will be glad to explain the nature of them to our callers.

HINDOO REVOLT MOVE

Students In America Banded Together to End English Rule.

MANY NOW IN OUR COLLEGES

Periodical to Keep Alive Spirit of Patriotism Started by a Hundred Young Natives of India—Every Student Must Return and Advance Freedom of His Country.

Hindoo revolutionists are at work in New York. A hundred young Hindoos have organized a movement there against British rule in India. A periodical called Free Hindustan made its first appearance in New York city the other day. It is devoted to the interests of the new revolutionary movement.

More than 200 Hindoo students are now residing temporarily in the United States to obtain the benefits of its universities and colleges, says the New York World. They mostly are representatives of the higher caste of India and call themselves the "future citizens" of the Indian empire.

Since the partition of Bengal in 1905, which caused much discontent among the Indians with the British government, the Hindoo movement toward independence has taken strength. The Hindustan association, which has headquarters in Calcutta, Bombay and Madras, has raised money enough to educate several hundred Indian young men in foreign universities, especially in Japan and the United States.

There are 5 universities, 141 colleges and 5,461 high schools in India. A competitive examination is open for all the students in these institutions for the foreign scholarships. Out of several thousand applicants only 200 are sent every year to foreign countries. Every student sent abroad must pledge himself to return to his country and devote himself to the advancement and freedom of India.

The Hindustan association recently published a pamphlet giving detailed information about American colleges and universities. Every student is supplied with one of these pamphlets before departing to the United States. And here, after consulting at the association's branch headquarters in New York city, the pupils are directed to various institutions.

One of the rules is that the students mingle with the American pupils, obtain American ideas and study the social and economic conditions here. But they must always keep in mind that they are preparing themselves to elevate and help their countrymen to gain their freedom. To crush the British yoke is the dream of every Hindoo student in the United States.

Lalit M. Khar of 155 East Twenty-second street, an engineering student, who took a prominent part in the Madras demonstrations at the time of the Bengal partition, said:

"The people of India have no votes and are not even represented in the executive councils of India. They have no voice in taxation nor expenditures. About $25,000,000 annually is drained from the country for England. Taxes are higher than in any other civilized country.

"The natives of India are determined to stand on their own feet, but it is a hard problem for an enslaved nation to raise its head while the sword of a powerful alien government is held close to its neck. Our press is muzzled. The secrets bill passed by Lord Curzon has gagged our publications."

Nafar Das Ray, another student, said: "The whole weight of the British government is grinding the nation and enslaving the spirit of progress. Even here we are haunted and followed by British detectives. We are here to get an education. Why don't they let us alone?"

"Yes, I am a revolutionist. I feel like your forefathers and have within me the spirit of '76. They say that Egypt has improved immensely since England took possession of it and egyptian ization has far advanced there, as well as in India, compared with former Mohammedan rule. Why don't you consider the misery of natives in India? We are treated worse than dogs."

Under the title of "Free Hindustan" is a quotation from Herbert Spencer. "Every man is free to do that which he wills, provided he infringes not the equal freedom of any other man." The aim of the new publication is "to throw off the foreign yoke, to unfold, wave and hoist our own national flag and thus assert our Indian manhood. Let selfishness go, let us toll ever and forever for our country's release in defiance of despot, devil and death. For us there is no dread. Pleasure or pain, profit or loss, victory or defeat, will be all the same to us. So minded, we are 'girded' for life's battle."

New Arrangement For Stars In Flag.

A man with a patriotic, mathematical mind out in Ohio has planned an entirely new method of adjusting the stars in the blue field of Old Glory. He is Dr. A. M. Martin of Bloomfield and has something unique as a suggestion for settling a much disputed question. Every time a new state is added to the Union the stars have to be adjusted differently, and confusion and disagreement have resulted frequently. Dr. Martin's geometrical design consists of five arcs, the centers of which are the apices of a regular pentagon. The stars are placed at regular intervals on the arcs and fall naturally into a perfect geometrical position. A bill embodying the doctor's plan and providing for its official adoption has been introduced by Representative Ansherry of Ohio.

RIOT IN PHILADELPHIA

Unemployed Foreigners March on the City Hall.

BATTLE WITH THE POLICE

Results in Injury to Twenty Persons Before Order Is Restored—Trouble Started When Wagons Tried to Pass Through Line of Marchers.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—The marching of nearly 1,000 foreigners upon the city hall, where they said they intended to make demands upon Mayor Reuben for work, precipitated a riot in Broad street in which twenty persons were injured before the police dispersed the marchers and arrested fourteen of them.

The men, most of whom were Italians and Poles, marched from the foreign settlements in the lower section of the city. The leaders and a score of others carried red flags having a black border. When they reached Broad street, a few blocks below the city hall, several wagons attempted to pass through the line. The drivers were dragged from their seats by the marchers and beaten.

Policemen ran to the rescue and a riot call was sent in. The motor bicycle police were sent through the center of the city and rounded up the entire mounted police squad, the big reserve street squad and all patrolmen, who were hurried to the scene in wagons and automobiles. Private carriages were even pressed into service. A number of persons who were watching the paraders got into the first disturbance and when the big reserves hurried down upon the marchers a general riot was in progress.

Began Firing on the Police.

Some of the marchers drew revolvers and began firing at the police and the mounted officers riding into the center of the fight used their batons right and left upon the heads of the leaders. In the melee three policemen were shot and slightly wounded, and Charles Munn, who was watching the fight, was struck in the leg by a stray bullet. Reserve Officer Pyott was beaten unmercifully and is in a hospital, as is Policeman Smith, who first went to the rescue of the drivers. Harry Druding, one of these, was beaten and nearly stripped of his clothing. Fourteen participants in the demonstration were severely clubbed and had to be sent to a hospital.

The clash occurred directly in front of one of the big hotels on Broad street and for a time it looked as though the marchers would sweep into the place.

Joseph Trot is declared by the police to have been the leader of the marchers, while Dominick Donnetti and Michel Costello were assistants. Donnetti, according to witnesses, is the man who shot one of the policemen, and with the other two he was locked up on charges of inciting to riot and assault and battery with intent to kill. The other eleven prisoners are charged with inciting to riot. Nearly all those arrested carried weapons of some sort.

TERRORISTS ARRESTED.

Had Planned Attacks on Lives of Exalted Personages.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21.—Attempts that had been planned against the lives of exalted personages were frustrated by the police by a succession of arrests in various parts of the city, aggregating fifty men and women. This is the greatest number of terrorists ever taken by the police in the capital. The majority of them were heavily armed, some with bombs, and they made desperate resistance against the police. During the course of the arrests three policemen were wounded and one was killed. The operations centered around the palace of Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaevich, who, it is surmised, was the immediate object of the plot.

Several hundred of the foot and mounted gendarmes drew a cordon around an entire city block in the vicinity of the grand duke's palace, comprising 600 occupied apartments. Agents of the police searched these apartments from top to bottom and unearthed stores of explosives and firearms. A fashionably dressed woman was arrested on the street. She carried a muff in which was concealed a quantity of dynamite and was escorted by a man who wore flat under his belt an infernal machine of a new type. Both opened fire when the police approached them, wounding three of the officers.

Another woman who was arrested at the entrance to Prince Ussupoff park killed a policeman during the struggle. Two men were arrested in the Grande Morsala, one of whom is a notorious Italian anarchist. While the police were arresting a terrorist on Basile island, he dangerously wounded two of them.

Russian War Minister Dismissed.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21.—The No-Voe Vremya states that Lieutenant General Rudiger has been dismissed from the office of minister of war and that his successor will be Lieutenant General Nicholas Ivanoff, who took part in the Turkish and Japanese wars and who now is governor general of Cronstadt.

EVANS' FLEET AT CALLAO

Big Battleships Arrive Safely at Peruvian Port.

Callao, Feb. 21.—The American battleships under Rear Admiral Evans, looking clean, trim and powerful in the tropical sun, came to anchor in this port. The booming of salutes announced the arrival of the fleet, but there was no need to send out signals, for every resident of Callao and great crowds from Lima, that stands back on the hills, had awaited with expectancy the first glimpse of the advancing column.

Callao was in holiday array, wishing to show that Peruvian hospitality was second to none in South America, and many thousands viewed from the wharves, the headlands and the ships in the harbor, the imposing scene. Enthusiastic crowds went down the bay on excursion steamers and cheered the American men-of-war.

The Peruvian cruiser Caronel Bolognesi, bearing the first official welcome to the fleet, joined the American vessels 250 miles to the southward and acted as an escort up the coast. She led the way into the harbor with the flagship of the fleet close beside, and soon the sound of guns gave notice that the American sailors were the republic's guests.

The only regrettable feature of the entertainments arranged in honor of the visitors is the fact that the commander himself, Rear Admiral Evans, will not be able to attend. It was stated that Admiral Evans, who has been suffering almost from the beginning of the voyage from rheumatism, was slightly better, but he does not feel that he should now risk the danger of coming ashore.

Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas, commander of the Second squadron, will represent him at the official ceremonies attendant upon the visit, but Rear Admiral Evans is still the commander of the fleet.

The battleships will remain here probably for ten days and will be joined by the torpedo boat flotilla near the close of their stay at Callao. Arrangements have been made for festivities of all kinds, including a bullfight.

TWENTY-EIGHT MEN KILLED

Packing House of a Powder Works Blows Up.

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 21.—With a force that shook the entire bay region like an earthquake, the packing house of the Hercules powder works at Pinole, fourteen miles north of here, blew up and in the explosion four white men and twenty-four Chinamen were killed.

Ten tons of dynamite went up in the terrific blast, shattering the sheds to dust and splinters.

W. W. Stillwell, foreman of the packing house, was blown to atoms. Manuel Enos, Joseph Grace and W. A. Rodriguez were the other white men killed.

The twenty-eight dead included every man who was at work in the packing house.

Flames burst forth in the ruins following the explosion and threatened the gelatine house, where two score of girls were at work. A panic ensued and many were cut by flying glass and crushed and trampled in the mad rush for the doors.

The Hercules plant is owned by the E. I. Dupont de Nemours Powder company and is used for the manufacture of black powder of high explosive power. The loss to the company is placed at about $100,000. No definite cause for the accident can be given.

HOLD BRIEF SESSIONS.

Both Houses Adjourn Because of Senator Latimer's Death.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Because of the death in this city of Senator Asbury C. Latimer of South Carolina, both branches of congress adjourned, the senate almost immediately after convening, and the house an hour afterward upon receiving official notification of the senator's demise. In each chamber resolutions of regret were adopted and a committee was appointed to accompany the body home.

Most of the time the house was in session was consumed by the reading of impeachment charges offered by Mr. Waldo of New York against Federal Judge Lebbius R. Wiley of the United States court at Shanghai, China, which were referred to the committee on the judiciary.

Boston, Feb. 21.—William H. Wittig announces that arrangements have been completed for a wrestling match for the championship of the world between Gotch and Hackenschmidt, to be held at Chicago on the evening of April 3. The match will be for a purse of $10,000, 60 per cent to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser. The wrestling will be catch-as-catch-can style, best two out of three falls.

Populists of Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 21.—Populists of Iowa held their state convention and selected district delegates and delegates-at-large to the national convention, which meets in St. Louis on April 2. L. H. Weller was chairman. Resolutions were adopted approving what is known as the Omaha platform of the People's party and also the platform adopted at Springfield, Ill., in 1904.

RECIPE FOR OLD AGE

Physician's Health Rules For Living Over a Century.

TOOK CARE OF HIS STOMACH

In This, the Late Dr. W. M. Starr of Washington Declared, Lay Secret of Longevity Which All Might Attain. Never Went into Water Above His Head.

Dr. William M. Starr, oldest citizen of the District of Columbia, who recently died at Washington from cystitis, lived to be 101 years old and told how he did it.

Dr. Starr had a varied career. He was born on what was afterward the battlefield of Bull Run, in Virginia. He traveled extensively in the west, where he built and sold log cabins. Then he became a miner in California in 1849, a planter in Louisiana, a soldier in the Confederate army and ended his days as a medical botanist in Washington.

Dr. Starr never had the services of a physician until his last illness, when he was attended by Dr. J. H. Waring of Washington.

"Longevity is assured every one if he will treat his stomach decently," said Dr. Starr in explaining his long life. "That is the treatment I have accorded mine since I was fourteen years old. Here are a few of my simple rules, to which I attribute the years that have passed over my head without leaving the marks I see upon many younger men around me:

"I never ate as much as I could eat in my entire life.

"I never drank intoxicants of any kind.

"I have never used tobacco in any form.

"I have never taken more than half a glass of ice water at once.

"I never drank ice water after meals, thus paralyzing the digestive organs.

"I have never gone in water above my head. A man's head has no more business under the water than a fish has out of it.

"I only learned what foods were injurious and those which assisted nature in its work. I always avoided the former.

"I have never remained in a draft when overheated.

"I eat only two meals a day—at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m."

A short time before his death Dr. Starr said:

"For more than thirty years I have followed a regular programme. I retire early, rise a little before 8 and eat a light breakfast. For the morning meal I generally order two scrambled eggs, bread and butter, mashed potatoes and stale bread and milk. The menu for the afternoon meal, taken at 4 o'clock, is practically the same, with the addition of lean meats, tomatoes, prunes or apple sauce. I eat but two meals a day. I drink no water with my food. Under no circumstances would I take a glass of ice water. Ice water poured into the stomach at meal-time simply stops digestion until the water becomes the temperature of the blood.

"A large part of the human family dig their own graves with their teeth. They eat what they should not, they eat more than they should not, and they eat more than they should and then expect some doctor with poisonous medicines to keep them in health. Everything you eat, drink or chew is either a benefit or an injury to you. Remember that. What not to eat is just as important as what to eat.

"Investigation has taught me that if you would live long you must put on the blacklist all pies and pastry, oatmeal, fat meats of every kind, coffee, warm bread and in some respects milk. Too much milk is not good for any one."

Lancets to Treat Snake Bites.

In view of the large number of deaths caused annually in Burma by snake bite it has been decided to distribute as widely as possible through the province the lancets designed by Sir Lander Brunton for the treatment of snake bite with permanganate of potash, the efficacy of which, if the treatment is at once applied, is now established.

Remove Poisons FROM THE SYSTEM.

There are three ways and three only, by which the human body can be rid of poisons, waste matter—the bowels, the kidneys, and the skin.

It is only when the bowels become sluggish and constipated that the kidneys play out as a result of the excessive work thrown upon them. Now, there is only one medical treatment that fully realizes this condition of affairs,

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills

For they regulate the bowels as well as the kidneys, and thereby remove the cause of trouble and cure the most complicated cases. You can scarcely find a case of kidney disease which did not begin with liver and bowel disorders and which could therefore have been prevented by this great prescription of the famous Receipt Book author. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. E. F. Smith, 1306 S. Washington Street, Lansing, Mich., states: "Suffering from kidney troubles, I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, and was much pleased with their thorough action on the liver and kidneys, removing the bile, regulating the bowels and toning the kidneys up to healthy and normal action."

MURDER ON A COLLIER.

Carpenter Kills the Chief Officer of the Abarenda.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Feb. 21.—George Dixon, a carpenter on the American collier Abarenda, killed Walter Weichert, chief officer of the collier. The crime was committed on board the vessel. Dixon swung at Weichert with an axe and completely severed his head. The attack was made just as Weichert was walking away from the carpenter's bench, where he had been talking with Dixon. Weichert recently had Dixon placed in irons on account of disobedience of orders and this probably was the motive for the crime.

Dixon at once reported the murder and asked the second officer to put him in the ship's brig. A board of inquiry has been appointed to investigate the occurrence.

The Abarenda accompanied the fleet of American battleships to Rio Janeiro and arrived here four days ago from that port.

The New Patriotism.

The old patriotism was much concerned with guns and flags and all the paraphernalia of war. The new patriotism is to be a thing of schools, hospitals and churches and mission halls for all who feel the extraordinary burdens of life. The new patriotism will concern itself with clean streets and well built houses. It will demand that the rich be satisfied with less and that the poor have more. It will not be so spectacular, but it will be more real, more vitally related with the raw needs of human life. The day of the hero on horseback is past. The day of the hero in the bonds of civic sacrifice has come.—A. J. Haynes in "Social and Religious Ideas."

AS SUCCESSFUL EAST AS IN THE WEST

Cooper's Theories Are Being Rapidly Accepted by Eastern People.

L. T. Cooper, whose theory that the human stomach is the cause of most ill health and who created a furore in Chicago, St. Louis and other western cities, is meeting with the same remarkable success with his medicine throughout the east. Cooper has convinced an immense number of people that his theory is sound and his medicine will do what he claims. Perhaps the most interesting features of the discussion this young man is causing, are the statements made by responsible people who have taken his medicines and have become enthusiastic converts to his beliefs. Among statements of this character, the following, by Mr. August Wittmer, 1049 Rockwell Court, Chicago, is characteristic of the widespread faith in Cooper, which has grown up in a comparatively short time. Mr. Wittmer says: "I wouldn't take $1,000 and be in the condition I was three weeks ago. I was practically an invalid for fourteen years and think I had about all of the diseases known. My stomach was weak, and at times I would have an enormous appetite, and then again none at all. Pie and cake made me sick, and I almost always had a sickening feeling in my stomach. I was nervous, and for weeks at a time could not sleep, and then again could sleep eighteen hours at a stretch. Sleep, however, seemed to do me no good, and I would awake tired and more exhausted than when I went to bed. "I was constipated, had pains in my back, and flutterings and pains in my heart. I was unable to work with any regularity, and took no interest in anything. I tried all kinds of medicines and doctors, but none benefited me. I had no energy and no ambition, and had about concluded to give up when the Cooper medicine was recommended. Thanks to it, my health seems completely restored and I feel like a new man." Cooper medicines have created the greatest sensation of anything of the kind ever before introduced. We sell them, and will be glad to explain the nature of them to our callers. —H. P. Dunn

HINDOO REVOLT MOVE

Students In America Banded Together to End English Rule.

MANY NOW IN OUR COLLEGES

Periodical to Keep Alive Spirit of Patriotism Started by a Hundred Young Natives of India—Every Student Must Return and Advance Freedom of His Country.

Hindoo revolutionists are at work in New York. A hundred young Hindoos have organized a movement there against British rule in India. A periodical called Free Hindustan made its first appearance in New York city the other day. It is devoted to the interests of the new revolutionary movement.

More than 200 Hindoo students are now residing temporarily in the United States to obtain the benefits of its universities and colleges, says the New York World. They mostly are representatives of the higher caste of India and call themselves the "future citizens" of the Indian empire.

Since the partition of Bengal in 1905, which caused much discontent among the Indians with the British government, the Hindoo movement toward independence has taken strength. The Hindustan association, which has headquarters in Calcutta, Bombay and Madras, has raised money enough to educate several hundred Indian young men in foreign universities, especially in Japan and the United States.

There are 5 universities, 141 colleges and 5,461 high schools in India. A competitive examination is open for all the students in these institutions for the foreign scholarships. Out of several thousand applicants only 200 are sent every year to foreign countries. Every student sent abroad must pledge himself to return to his country and devote himself to the advancement and freedom of India.

The Hindustani association recently published a pamphlet giving detailed information about American colleges and universities. Every student is supplied with one of these pamphlets before departing to the United States. And here, after consulting at the association's branch headquarters in New York city, the pupils are directed to various institutions.

One of the rules is that the students mingle with the American pupils, obtain American ideas and study the social and economic conditions here. But they must always keep in mind that they are preparing themselves to liberate and help their countrymen to gain their freedom. To crush the British yoke is the dream of every Hindoo student in the United States.

Lalit M. Khar of 155 East Twenty-second street, an engineering student, who took a prominent part in the Madras demonstrations at the time of the Bengal partition, said:

"The people of India have no votes and are not even represented in the executive councils of India. They have no voice in taxation nor expenditures. About £25,000,000 annually is drained from the country for England. Taxes are higher than in any other civilized country.

"The natives of India are determined to stand on their own feet, but it is a hard problem for an enslaved nation to raise its head while the sword of a powerful alien government is held close to its neck. Our press is muzzled. The secrets bill passed by Lord Curzon has gagged our publications."

Nafar Das Ray, another student, said: "The whole weight of the British government is grinding the nation and enslaving the spirit of progress. Even here we are haunted and followed by British detectives. We are here to get an education. Why don't they let us alone?"

"Yes, I am a revolutionist. I feel like your forefathers and have within me the spirit of '76. They say that Egypt has improved immensely since England took possession of it and civ-

ization has far advanced there, as well as in India, compared with former Mohammedan rule. Why don't you consider the misery of natives in India? We are treated worse than dogs." Under the title of "Free Hindustan" is a quotation from Herbert Spencer, "Every man is free to do that which he wills, provided he infringes not the equal freedom of any other man." The aim of the new publication is "to throw off the foreign yoke, to unfold, wave and hoist our own national flag and thus assert our Indian manhood. Let selfishness go, let us tell over and over for our country's release in defiance of despot, devil and death. For us there is no dread. Pleasure or pain, profit or loss, victory or defeat, will be all the same to us. So minded, we are 'girded' for life's battle."

New Arrangement For Stars In Flag.

A man with a patriotic, mathematical mind out in Ohio has planned an entirely new method of adjusting the stars in the blue field of Old Glory. He is Dr. A. M. Martin of Bloomfield and has something unique as a suggestion for settling a much disputed question. Every time a new state is added to the Union the stars have to be adjusted differently, and confusion and disagreement have resulted frequently. Dr. Martin's geometrical design consists of five arcs, the centers of which are the apices of a regular pentagon. The stars are placed at regular intervals on the arcs and fall naturally into a perfect geometrical position. A bill embodying the doctor's plan and providing for its official adoption has been introduced by Representative Ansherry of Ohio.

"Well, the other night sister told pa that you was a sticking plaster, and as I can't reach ours without standing on a chair I thought maybe you'd do in a hurry up case."

RIOT IN PHILADELPHIA

Unemployed Foreigners March on the City Hall.

BATTLE WITH THE POLICE

Results in Injury to Twenty Persons Before Order Is Restored—Trouble Started When Wagons Tried to Pass Through Line of Marchers.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—The marching of nearly 1,000 foreigners upon the city hall, where they said they intended to make demands upon Mayor Reuben for work, precipitated a riot in Broad street in which twenty persons were injured before the police dispersed the marchers and arrested fourteen of them.

The men, most of whom were Italians and Poles, marched from the foreign settlements in the lower section of the city. The leaders and a score of others carried red flags having a black border. When they reached Broad street, a few blocks below the city hall, several wagons attempted to pass through the line. The drivers were dragged from their seats by the marchers and beaten.

Policemen ran to the rescue and a riot call was sent in. The motor bicycle police were sent through the center of the city and rounded up the entire mounted police squad, the big reserve street squad and all patrolmen, who were hurried to the scene in wagons and automobiles. Private carriages were even pressed into service. A number of persons who were watching the parade got into the first disturbance and when the big reserves hurried down upon the marchers a general riot was in progress.

Began Firing on the Police.

Some of the marchers drew revolvers and began firing at the police and the mounted officers riding into the center of the fight used their batons right and left upon the heads of the leaders. In the melee three policemen were shot and slightly wounded, and Charles Munn, who was watching the fight, was struck in the leg by a stray bullet. Reserve Officer Pyott was beaten unmercifully and is in a hospital, as is Policeman Smith, who first went to the rescue of the drivers. Harry Druding, one of these, was beaten and nearly stripped of his clothing. Fourteen participants in the demonstration were severely clubbed and had to be sent to a hospital.

The clash occurred directly in front of one of the big hotels on Broad street and for a time it looked as though the marchers would sweep into the place.

Joseph Trol is declared by the police to have been the leader of the marchers, while Dominick Donnetti and Michel Costello were assistants. Donnetti, according to witnesses, is the man who shot one of the policemen, and with the other two he was locked up on charges of inciting to riot and assault and battery with intent to kill. The other eleven prisoners are charged with inciting to riot. Nearly all those arrested carried weapons of some sort.

TERRORISTS ARRESTED.

Had Planned Attacks on Lives of Exalted Personages.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21.—Attempts that had been planned against the lives of exalted personages were frustrated by the police by a succession of arrests in various parts of the city, aggregating fifty men and women. This is the greatest number of terrorists ever taken by the police in the capital. The majority of them were heavily armed, some with bombs, and they made desperate resistance against the police. During the course of the arrests three policemen were wounded and one was killed. The operations centered around the palace of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholasievich, who, it is surmised, was the immediate object of the plot.

Several hundred of the foot and mounted gendarmes drew a cordon around an entire city block in the vicinity of the grand duke's palace, comprising 600 occupied apartments. Agents of the police searched these apartments from top to bottom and unearthed stores of explosives and firearms. A fashionably dressed woman was arrested on the street. She carried a muff in which was concealed a quantity of dynamite and was escorted by a man who wore flat under his belt an infernal machine of a new type. Both opened fire when the police approached them, wounding three of the officers.

Another woman who was arrested at the entrance to Prince Ussupoff park killed a policeman during the struggle. Two men were arrested in the Grande Morsia, one of whom is a notorious Italian anarchist. While the police were arresting a terrorist on Basile island, he dangerously wounded two of them.

Russian War Minister Dismissed.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21.—The No-Voe Vremya states that Lieutenant General Rudiger has been dismissed from the office of minister of war and that his successor will be Lieutenant General Nicholas Ivanoff, who took part in the Turkish and Japanese wars and who now is governor general of Cronstadt.

EVANS' FLEET AT CALLAO

Big Battleships Arrive Safely at Peruvian Port.

Callao, Feb. 21.—The American battleships under Rear Admiral Evans, looking clean, trim and powerful in the tropical sun, came to anchor in this port. The booming of salutes announced the arrival of the fleet, but there was no need to send out signals, for every resident of Callao and great crowds from Lima, that stands back on the hills, had awaited with expectancy the first glimpse of the advancing column.

Callao was in holiday array, wishing to show that Peruvian hospitality was second to none in South America, and many thousands viewed from the wharves, the headlands and the ships in the harbor, the imposing scene. Enthusiastic crowds went down the bay on excursion steamers and cheered the American men-of-war.

The Peruvian cruiser Caronel Bolognesi, bearing the first official welcome to the fleet, joined the American vessels 250 miles to the southward and acted as an escort up the coast. She led the way into the harbor with the flagship of the fleet close beside, and soon the sound of guns gave notice that the American sailors were the republic's guests.

The only regrettable feature of the entertainments arranged in honor of the visitors is the fact that the commander himself, Rear Admiral Evans, will not be able to attend. It was stated that Admiral Evans, who has been suffering almost from the beginning of the voyage from rheumatism, was slightly better, but he does not feel that he should now risk the danger of coming ashore.

Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas, commander of the Second squadron, will represent him at the official ceremonies attendant upon the visit, but Rear Admiral Evans is still the commander of the fleet.

The battleships will remain here probably for ten days and will be joined by the torpedo boat flotilla near the close of their stay at Callao. Arrangements have been made for festivities of all kinds, including a bullfight.

TWENTY-EIGHT MEN KILLED

Packing House of a Powder Works Blows Up.

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 21.—With a force that shook the entire bay region like an earthquake, the packing house of the Hercules powder works at Pinole, fourteen miles north of here, blew up and in the explosion four white men and twenty-four Chinamen were killed.

Ten tons of dynamite went up in the terrific blast, shattering the sheds to dust and splinters.

W. W. Stillwell, foreman of the packing house, was blown to atoms. Manuel Enos, Joseph Grace and W. A. Rodriguez were the other white men killed.

The twenty-eight dead included every man who was at work in the packing house.

Flames burst forth in the ruins following the explosion and threatened the gelatine house, where two score of girls were at work. A panic ensued and many were cut by flying glass and crushed and trampled in the mad rush for the doors.

The Hercules plant is owned by the E. I. Dupont de Nemours Powder company and is used for the manufacture of black powder of high explosive power. The loss to the company is placed at about $100,000. No definite cause for the accident can be given.

HOLD BRIEF SESSIONS.

Both Houses Adjourn Because of Senator Latimer's Death.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Because of the death in this city of Senator Asbury C. Latimer of South Carolina, both branches of congress adjourned, the senate almost immediately after convening, and the house an hour afterward upon receiving official notification of the senator's demise. In each chamber resolutions of regret were adopted and a committee was appointed to accompany the body home.

Most of the time the house was in session was consumed by the reading of impeachment charges offered by Mr. Waldo of New York against Federal Judge Lebbius R. Wilkey of the United States court at Shanghai, China, which were referred to the committee on the judiciary.

Gotch and Hackenschmidt to Meet.

Boston, Feb. 21.—William H. Wittig announces that arrangements have been completed for a wrestling match for the championship of the world between Gotch and Hackenschmidt, to be held at Chicago on the evening of April 3. The match will be for a purse of $10,000, 60 per cent to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser. The wrestling will be catch-as-catch-can style, best two out of three falls.

Populists of Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 21.—Populists of Iowa held their state convention and selected district delegates and delegates-at-large to the national convention, which meets in St. Louis on April 2. L. H. Weller was chairman. Resolutions were adopted approving what is known as the Omaha platform of the People's party and also the platform adopted at Springfield, Ill., in 1904.

RECIPE FOR OLD AGE

Physician's Health Rules For Living Over a Century.

TOOK CARE OF HIS STOMACH

In This, the Late Dr. W. M. Starr of Washington Declared, Lay Secret of Longevity Which All Might Attain. Never Went into Water Above His Head.

Dr. William M. Starr, oldest citizen of the District of Columbia, who recently died at Washington from cystitis, lived to be 101 years old and told how he did it.

Dr. Starr had a varied career. He was born on what was afterward the battlefield of Bull Run, in Virginia. He traveled extensively in the west, where he built and sold log cabins. Then he became a miner in California in 1849, a planter in Louisiana, a soldier in the Confederate army and ended his days as a medical botanist in Washington.

Dr. Starr never had the services of a physician until his last illness, when he was attended by Dr. J. H. Waring of Washington.

"Longevity is assured every one if he will treat his stomach decently," said Dr. Starr in explaining his long life. "That is the treatment I have accorded mine since I was fourteen years old. Here are a few of my simple rules, to which I attribute the years that have passed over my head without leaving the marks I see upon many younger men around me:

"I never ate as much as I could eat in my entire life.

"I never drank intoxicants of any kind.

"I have never used tobacco in any form.

"I have never taken more than half a glass of ice water at once.

"I never drank ice water after meals, thus paralyzing the digestive organs.

"I have never gone in water above my head. A man's head has no more business under the water than a fish has out of it.

"I only learned what foods were injurious and those which assisted nature in its work. I always avoided the former.

"I have never remained in a draft when overheated.

"I eat only two meals a day—at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m."

A short time before his death Dr. Starr said:

"For more than thirty years I have followed a regular programme. I retire early, rise a little before 8 and eat a light breakfast. For the morning meal I generally order two scrambled eggs, bread and butter, mashed potatoes and stale bread and milk. The menu for the afternoon meal, taken at 4 o'clock, is practically the same, with the addition of lean meats, tomatoes, prunes or apple sauce. I eat but two meals a day. I drink no water with my food. Under no circumstances would I take a glass of ice water. Ice water poured into the stomach at meal-time simply stops digestion until the water becomes the temperature of the blood.

"A large part of the human family dig their own graves with their teeth. They eat what they should not, they eat when they should not, and they eat more than they should and then expect some doctor with poisonous medicines to keep them in health. Everything you eat, drink or chew is either a benefit or an injury to you. Remember that. What not to eat is just as important as what to eat.

"Investigation has taught me that if you would live long you must put on the blacklist all pies and pastry, oatmeal, fat meats of every kind, coffee, warm bread and in some respects milk. Too much milk is not good for any one."

Lancets to Treat Snake Bites.

In view of the large number of deaths caused annually in Burma by snake bite it has been decided to distribute as widely as possible through the province the lancets designed by Sir Lauder Brunton for the treatment of snake bite with permanganate of potash, the efficacy of which, if the treatment is at once applied, is now established.

Remove Poisons FROM THE SYSTEM.

There are three ways and three only, by which the human body can be rid of poisons, waste matter—the bowels, the kidneys, and the skin.

It is only when the bowels become sluggish and constipated that the kidneys play out as a result of the excessive work thrown upon them. Now, there is only one medical treatment that fully realizes this condition of affairs,

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills

For they regulate the bowels as well as the kidneys, and thereby remove the cause of trouble and cure the most complicated cases. You can scarcely find a case of kidney disease which did not begin with liver and bowel disorders and which could therefore have been prevented by this great prescription of the famous Receipt Book author. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. E. F. Smith, 1306 S. Washington Street, Lansing, Mich., states: "Suffering from kidney troubles, I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, and was much pleased with their thorough action on the liver and kidneys, removing the bile, regulating the bowels and toning the kidneys up to healthy and normal action."

MURDER ON A COLLIER.

Carpenter Kills the Chief Officer of the Abarenda.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Feb. 21.—George Dixon, a carpenter on the American collier Abarenda, killed Walter Welchert, chief officer of the collier. The crime was committed on board the vessel. Dixon swung at Welchert with an axe and completely severed his head. The attack was made just as Welchert was walking away from the carpenter's bench, where he had been talking with Dixon. Welchert recently had Dixon placed in irons on account of disobedience of orders and this probably was the motive for the crime.

Dixon at once reported the murder and asked the second officer to put him in the ship's brig. A board of inquiry has been appointed to investigate the occurrence.

The Abarenda accompanied the fleet of American battleships to Rio Janeiro and arrived here four days ago from that port.
